

Biography of
Randall H. Groth, PH.D.
Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army Arizona

BUSINESS/PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS: Associate Vice President and Dean of the University of Arizona South; Secretary, Cochise College Governing Board; Corporate Owner, C2I2.com (an Internet access provider company); Owner, Economic Technologies, L.L.C. (a multiple real estate investment portfolio); Former Member, Bank One Advisory Council.

EDUCATION: 1990 PhD, University of Arizona; 1981 Master of Arts, University of Northern Colorado; 1974 Bachelor of Science, Southwest Missouri State University.

MILITARY SERVICE: 1975 - 1977 Officer, US Army Signal Corps; 1977-1981 US Army Reserves; Signal Officers Basic Course, Fort Gordon; Radio Systems Officer Course, Fort Gordon Airborne School, Fort Benning.

STATE GOVERNMENT SERVICE: Former Member, Military Facilities Commission/Governor Hull's Blue Chip Panel on Military Affairs; Former Member, Military Facilities Commission/Governor Symington's Blue Chip Panel on Military Affairs; Former Member, Governor's Commission on Dual Enrollment

MEMBERSHIPS AND OTHER AFFILIATIONS:

MILITARY - RELATED: Member, Association of the United States Army; Member, Employer Support for the Guard and Reserve, State of Arizona; Charter Member, Fort Huachuca 50; Former Member, Joint Civilian Orientation Conference - 58.

CIVIC / PHILANTHROPIC: Member, Arizona Folklore Preserve Board of Directors; Member of the Sierra Vista Area Chamber of Commerce - Awarded "Citizen of the Year," April, 1992; Former Member, Citizen's Advisory Commission, Sierra Vista; Former Member, Huachucans; Past President of the Sierra Vista Economic Development Foundation Board of Directors; Past President, Sierra Vista South Rotary Club.

DATE AND PLACE OF BIRTH: Born the son of a career Army Aviator, September 23, 1951, at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

ORIGINAL APPOINTMENT: April 1, 2003

